1. These rules are the Rules of International Arbitration of the Korean Commercial Arbitration Board (“KCAB”) and may be referred to as the “KCAB International Arbitration Rules” or “Rules”.
2. The KCAB shall appoint, among its secretariat (“Secretariat”), a secretary to administer the matters concerning arbitration proceedings to be conducted in accordance with these Rules.
3. The KCAB shall establish the International Arbitration Committee (“Committee”) composed of the members of its own choice. The KCAB shall consult the Committee in making decisions with respect to Article 13 and 14 of these Rules, and when it deems it necessary, Article 12 of these Rules.

ARTICLE 2. DEFINITIONS

The definitions of terms used in these Rules shall be as follows:

- (a) “Arbitral Tribunal” includes arbitral tribunals composed of one or more arbitrators.
- (b) “Claimant” includes one or more claimants and “Respondent” includes one or more respondents.
- (c) “Award” includes, inter alia, an interim, interlocutory, partial and final Award.
- (d) “International Arbitration” refers to an arbitration where:
 - (i) at least one of the parties to an arbitration agreement, at the time of conclusion of that agreement, has its place of business in any State other than Korea; or
 - (ii) the place of arbitration set out under an arbitration agreement is in any State other than Korea.

- (e) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (d) above the place of business shall be deemed to be:
 - (i) the principal place of business, if a party has more than one place of business; or
 - (ii) his habitual residence, if a party does not have a place of business.

ARTICLE 3. SCOPE OF APPLICATION

1. In either of the following cases, the arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with these Rules, which shall be deemed to form a part of the arbitration agreement, subject to whatever modifications the parties may adopt in writing:
 - (a) where the parties have agreed in writing to refer their disputes to arbitration under these Rules; or
 - (b) where the parties have agreed in writing to refer their disputes to arbitration before the KCAB, and the arbitration is an International Arbitration.
2. These Rules govern the arbitration, except that, where any such rule is in conflict with any provision of the law applicable to the arbitration from which the parties cannot derogate, that provision shall prevail.

ARTICLE 4. NOTIFICATION AND DOCUMENT SUBMISSION

1. All pleadings and other written communications submitted by any party, as well as all documents annexed thereto, shall be supplied in a number of copies sufficient to provide one copy for each party, plus one for each arbitrator, and one for the Secretariat. A copy of any communication from the Arbitral Tribunal to the parties shall be sent to the Secretariat.

2. All notifications or communications from the Secretariat and the Arbitral Tribunal shall be made to the last known address of the party or its representative for whom the same are intended. Such notification or communication may be made by delivery against receipt, registered post, courier, facsimile transmission, telex, telegram or any other means of telecommunication that provides a record of the sending thereof.
3. A notification or communication shall be deemed to have been made on the day it was received by the party itself or by its representative, or would have been received if made in accordance with Paragraph 2.
4. Until the Arbitral Tribunal is constituted, all communications between parties or between each party and arbitrators shall be made through the Secretariat. Thereafter, unless and until the Arbitral Tribunal directs otherwise, all communications, written or verbal, shall take place directly between parties or between each party and the Arbitral Tribunal (with simultaneous copies to the Secretariat, if written).
5. Where the Secretariat sends any written communication to one party on behalf of the Arbitral Tribunal, the Secretariat shall send a copy to each of the other parties. Where any party sends to the Secretariat any communication, it shall include a number of copies sufficient to provide one copy for each of the other parties and one for each arbitrator. The Secretariat shall then send such copies to the other parties and the Arbitral Tribunal.

ARTICLE 5. TIME LIMITS

1. For the purpose of determining the date of commencement of a time limit, a notice or other communication shall be deemed to have been received on the day it is delivered in accordance with Article 4.

2. For the purpose of determining compliance with a time limit, a notice or other communication shall be deemed to have complied with a time limit if it is dispatched, in accordance with Article 4, prior to or on the day of the expiration of the time limit.
3. For the purpose of calculating a period of time under these Rules, such period shall commence on the day immediately following the day when a notice or other communication is received. If the last day of such period is an official holiday or a non-business day at the place of residence or business of the addressee, the period will expire on the first following business day. Official holidays or non-business days occurring during the running of the period of time are included in calculating the period.

ARTICLE 6. GENERAL RULE AND RULE OF INTERPRETATION

In all matters not expressly provided for in these Rules, the Secretariat and the Arbitral Tribunal shall act in the spirit of these Rules and shall make every effort to make sure that the Award is enforceable at law.

ARTICLE 7. REPRESENTATION

A party may be represented by any person of its choice in the proceedings under these Rules, subject to such proof of authority as the Arbitral Tribunal may require.

CHAPTER 2. COMMENCING THE ARBITRATION

ARTICLE 8. REQUEST FOR ARBITRATION

1. A party intending to have recourse to arbitration under these Rules shall submit its Request for Arbitration (“Request”) to the Secretariat, which shall notify the Claimant and the Respondent of the receipt of the Request and the date of such receipt.
 2. The date on which the Request is received by the Secretariat shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be the date of the commencement of the arbitration proceedings.
 3. The Request shall, inter alia, contain, or be accompanied by, the following:
 - (a) full name and address, telephone and facsimile numbers (with country code and city code) of the Claimant;
 - (b) description of the Claimant, including its corporate form with location of incorporation or establishment (if applicable), or in case of an individual, the nationality of the individual and primary place of residence or employment;
 - (c) full name and address of each party against whom the arbitration is initiated (“Respondent”) together with telephone and facsimile numbers with country and city code (if known);
 - (d) a statement describing the nature and circumstances of the dispute giving rise to the claims;
 - (e) a statement of the relief sought, including, to the extent possible, an indication of any amount(s) claimed;
 - (f) a statement of any matters (such as the place or languages of the arbitration, applicable laws or the number of arbitrators, or their qualifications or identities) on which the parties have already agreed in writing in regard to the arbitration proceedings or in respect of which the Claimant wishes to make a proposal;
 - (g) if the arbitration agreement calls for party nomination of arbitrators, the name, address, telephone and facsimile numbers and any e-mail address (if known) of the Claimant’s nominee;
 - (h) the relevant agreements and, in particular, the written arbitration clause or separate written arbitration agreement invoked by the Claimant; and
 - (i) full name and address, telephone and facsimile numbers (with country code and city code) of the representative.
4. The Claimant shall submit the Request in the number of copies required by Article 4 and shall pay the filing fees provided under Appendix I (“Regulations on Filing Fees and Administrative Fees”) as in effect on the date the Request is submitted. In the event that the Claimant fails to comply with any of these requirements, the Secretariat may fix a time limit within which the Claimant must comply failing which the file shall be closed without prejudice to the rights of the Claimant to submit the same claims at a later date in another Request.
 5. The Secretariat shall send a copy of the Request and the documents annexed thereto to the Respondent for its Answer to the Request once the Secretariat has sufficient copies of the Request and the required advance payment.
 6. When a party submits a Request in connection with a legal relationship in respect of which arbitration proceedings between the same parties are already pending under these Rules, the Arbitral Tribunal may, at the request of a party, decide to include the claims contained in the Request in the pending proceedings, by taking into account the nature of such new claims, the stage of the arbitration and other relevant circumstances.

ARTICLE 9. ANSWER TO THE REQUEST AND COUNTERCLAIMS

1. Within thirty (30) days from the receipt of the Request from the Secretariat, the Respondent shall file an Answer (“Answer”) which shall, inter alia, contain the following information:
 - (a) full name and address, telephone and facsimile numbers (with country code and city code) of the Respondent;
 - (b) description of the Respondent, including its corporate form with location of incorporation or establishment (if applicable), or in case of an individual, the nationality of the individual and primary place of residence or employment;
 - (c) confirmation or denial of all or part of the claims advanced by the Claimant in the Request and responses to the relief sought in the Request;
 - (d) any comments concerning the number of arbitrators and their choice in light of the Claimant’s proposals and in accordance with the provisions of Article 11 and 12, and any nomination of an arbitrator required thereby;
 - (e) any comments as to the place of arbitration, the applicable laws and the language of the arbitration;
 - (f) if the arbitration agreement calls for party nomination of arbitrators, the name, address, telephone and facsimile numbers and e-mail address (if known) of the Respondent’s nominee; and
 - (g) full name and address, telephone and facsimile numbers (with country code and city code) of the representative.
2. The Secretariat may grant the Respondent an extension of the time for filing the Answer; provided that the application for such an extension contains the Respondent’s comments concerning the number of arbitrators and their choice and, where required by Article 11 and 12, the appointment of an arbitrator. If the Respondent fails to do so, the Secretariat shall proceed in accordance with these Rules.

3. The Answer shall be supplied to the Secretariat in the number of copies specified by Article 4.
4. Any counterclaim(s) made by the Respondent shall be filed with its Answer (or may be filed at a later stage in the arbitration proceedings if the Arbitral Tribunal decides that the delay was justified under the circumstances) and shall provide the following, provided, however, that the grounds for any counterclaim must be based on the arbitration agreement pending between the Claimant and the Respondent:
 - (a) a description of the nature and circumstances of the dispute giving rise to the counterclaim(s); and
 - (b) a statement of the relief sought including, to the extent possible, an indication of any amount(s) counterclaimed.
5. When the Arbitral Tribunal considers that the purport and grounds of the Respondent’s defense includes a counterclaim, the Arbitral Tribunal may request the Respondent to clarify whether it intended to file a counterclaim as provided in Paragraph 4 above.
6. Failure to file an Answer shall not preclude the Respondent from denying any claim or from advancing a counterclaim in the arbitration proceeding. However, if the arbitration agreement calls for party nomination of arbitrators, failure to send an Answer or to nominate an arbitrator within the time limit or at all shall constitute an irrevocable waiver of that party’s opportunity to nominate an arbitrator.

CHAPTER 3. THE ARBITRAL TRIBUNAL

ARTICLE 10. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Arbitrators acting under these rules shall be, and remain at all times, impartial and independent.
2. Prior to accepting appointment, a prospective arbitrator shall disclose in writing to the Secretariat any circumstance likely to give rise to justifiable doubts as to his impartiality or independence. If, at any stage during the arbitration, new circumstances arise that may give rise to such doubts, an arbitrator shall immediately disclose in writing to the parties and to the Secretariat such circumstances.
3. The decisions of the Secretariat on any matter related to the appointment, replacement or removal of arbitrators shall be final and not subject to appeal.

ARTICLE 11. THE NUMBER OF ARBITRATORS

In principle, the disputes under these Rules shall be decided by a sole arbitrator. However, a case may be decided by three (3) arbitrators if the parties have agreed to do so or the Secretariat, in the absence of such an agreement between the parties, taking into consideration the parties' intentions, the amount, the complexity or other factors of the dispute, considers it appropriate to appoint three (3) arbitrators.

ARTICLE 12. APPOINTMENT OF ARBITRATORS

1. Where the dispute is to be referred to a sole arbitrator, the parties shall agree upon and appoint a sole arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the Request for Arbitration by the Respondent or the decision of the Secretariat that the number of arbitrators shall be one (1) as provided in Article 11 above. If the parties fail to jointly appoint a sole arbitrator within that time frame or within such additional time as may be allowed by the Secretariat, the Secretariat shall appoint the sole arbitrator.
2. Where the parties have agreed that the dispute is to be settled by three (3) arbitrators, the Claimant shall appoint an arbitrator in its Request or within such additional time as may be allowed by the Secretariat, and the Respondent shall appoint an arbitrator in its Answer or within such additional time as may be allowed by the Secretariat. Where the dispute is to be referred to three (3) arbitrators pursuant to the decision of the Secretariat as provided in Article 11 above, each party shall appoint an arbitrator within thirty (30) days from receipt of the notice from the Secretariat or within such additional time as may be allowed by the Secretariat. If either party fails to appoint an arbitrator within that time limit, the Secretariat shall appoint such arbitrator. Upon appointment of the first two arbitrators, the two arbitrators shall agree upon the third arbitrator, who shall act as chairman of the Arbitral Tribunal. If, within thirty (30) days of the appointment of the second arbitrator, the two arbitrators have not appointed a third arbitrator to act as chairman of the Arbitral Tribunal, the Secretariat shall appoint such arbitrator.

3. In cases where the Arbitral Tribunal is to consist of three (3) arbitrators and there are multiple parties, whether as Claimant or as Respondent, the multiple claimants, jointly, and the multiple respondents, jointly, shall appoint an arbitrator pursuant to Article 12 (2). In the absence of such a joint nomination and where all parties are unable to agree to a method for the constitution of the Arbitral Tribunal, the Secretariat shall appoint each member of the Arbitral Tribunal and shall designate one of them to act as chairman.
4. In appointing arbitrators, the Secretariat shall consider the prospective arbitrator's experience, availability, nationality and residence. When one of the parties requests, the Secretariat shall appoint, as the person to act as a sole arbitrator or a chairman of the Arbitral Tribunal, a person whose nationality is different from the nationalities of each of the parties.
5. When all members of the Arbitral Tribunal have been appointed pursuant to these Rules, the Secretariat shall without delay notify in writing all members of the Arbitral Tribunal and both parties of the full name(s), address(es) and occupation(s) of the arbitrator(s).

ARTICLE 13. CHALLENGE OF ARBITRATORS

1. Any arbitrator may be challenged if circumstances exist that give rise to justifiable doubts as to the arbitrator's impartiality or independence. A party who participates in the appointment of an arbitrator may challenge the arbitrator so appointed only for reasons of which the party becomes aware after the appointment.
2. A challenge of an arbitrator, whether for an alleged lack of independence, impartiality or otherwise, shall be made by the submission to the Secretariat of a written statement specifying the facts and circumstances on which the challenge is based. Such statement shall be copied to all of the parties to the arbitration, and to any arbitrators in the case.

3. For a challenge to be considered, it must be sent by a party either within fifteen (15) days from receipt by that party of notice of appointment of the arbitrator, or within fifteen (15) days from the date when the party making the challenge was informed of the facts and circumstances on which the challenge is based.
4. The challenged arbitrator, the other party or parties and any other members of the Arbitral Tribunal may comment on the challenge, in writing, within fifteen (15) days of their receipt of the challenge. Such comments shall be communicated to the Secretariat, each of the parties and the arbitrators.
5. When an arbitrator has been challenged by one party, the other party or parties may agree to the acceptance of the challenge and, if there is an agreement, the arbitrator shall withdraw. The challenged arbitrator may also withdraw from office in the absence of such agreement. In neither case does withdrawal imply acceptance of the validity of the grounds for the challenge. If the other party does not agree to the challenge, or the challenged arbitrator does not withdraw, the Secretariat shall make a decision on the challenge.

ARTICLE 14. REPLACEMENT AND REMOVAL OF ARBITRATORS

1. An arbitrator shall be replaced upon that arbitrator's death, upon the acceptance by the Secretariat of the arbitrator's resignation, upon a decision of the Secretariat to sustain a challenge or, upon the request of all the parties to the arbitration.
2. The Secretariat may remove any arbitrator who fails to perform his or her duties or unduly delays in the performance of his or her duties, or is legally or actually unable to perform his or her duties.

3. In the event of the replacement of an arbitrator during the course of the arbitration proceedings, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed or chosen pursuant to the procedure provided for in Article 12 that was applicable to the appointment or choice of the arbitrator being replaced.
4. Once the arbitrator has been replaced, and after consultation with the parties, the Arbitral Tribunal shall determine if and to what extent prior proceedings shall be repeated before the reconstituted Arbitral Tribunal.
5. Subsequent to the closure of the proceedings, instead of replacing an arbitrator who has died, resigned or been removed, the Secretariat may decide that the remaining arbitrators shall complete the arbitration. In making such a determination, the Secretariat shall consult with the remaining arbitrators and the parties and may consider such other matters that it considers appropriate in making its decision.

CHAPTER 4.

ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS

ARTICLE 15. PROCEDURAL TIMETABLE

1. After having consulted the parties, the Arbitral Tribunal shall establish in a separate document a provisional timetable that it intends to follow for the conduct of the arbitration and shall communicate it to the Secretariat and the parties within thirty (30) days of the constitution of the Arbitral Tribunal.

2. Notwithstanding Paragraph 1 above, the Arbitral Tribunal may, in general following the submission of the Answer, conduct a preparatory conference with the parties for the purpose of organizing and scheduling the subsequent proceedings.

ARTICLE 16. FURTHER WRITTEN STATEMENTS

1. The Arbitral Tribunal may, in its discretion, allow or require the parties to submit any written statements in addition to the Request and the Answer (Counterclaim), and it shall fix the periods of time for submitting any such statements.
2. The periods of time fixed by the Arbitral Tribunal for the submission of such written statements should not exceed forty-five (45) days.
3. The party who presents additional written statements in accordance with Paragraph 1 above shall provide the other party and the Arbitral Tribunal with such written statements accompanied by copies (or, if they are especially voluminous, lists) of all essential documents on which the party concerned relies and which have not previously been submitted by any party, and (where appropriate) by any relevant samples and exhibits.

ARTICLE 17. AMENDMENT TO CLAIMS, DEFENSES AND COUNTERCLAIMS

During the arbitration proceedings, any party may amend or supplement its claim, counterclaim or defense and notify the other party and the Secretariat thereof, unless the Arbitral Tribunal considers it inappropriate to allow such amendment or supplement because of delay to the proceedings, prejudice to the other parties or any other circumstances. A party may not amend or supplement a claim or counterclaim if the amendment or supplement would fall outside the scope of the agreement to arbitrate.

ARTICLE 18. PLACE OF ARBITRATION

1. The place of the arbitration, in the absence of an agreement by the parties, shall be Seoul, the Republic of Korea, unless the Arbitral Tribunal determines in view of all the circumstances of the case that another place is more appropriate.
2. The Arbitral Tribunal may, after consultation with the parties, conduct hearings and meetings at any location it considers appropriate.
3. The Arbitral Tribunal may deliberate at any location it considers appropriate.

ARTICLE 19. PLEAS AS TO THE JURISDICTION OF THE ARBITRAL TRIBUNAL

1. The Arbitral Tribunal shall have the power to rule on objections that it has no jurisdiction, including any objections with respect to the existence or validity of the arbitration clause or of the separate arbitration agreement.
2. The Arbitral Tribunal shall have the power to determine the existence or validity of a contract of which an arbitration clause forms a part. Such an arbitration clause shall be treated as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract. A decision by the Arbitral Tribunal that the contract is null and void shall not for that reason alone render invalid the arbitration clause.
3. A plea that the Arbitral Tribunal does not have jurisdiction shall be raised no later than the filing of the Answer to the Request, as provided in Article 9, or, with respect to a counterclaim, the filing of the Answer to the counterclaim.
4. In general, the Arbitral Tribunal should rule on a plea concerning its jurisdiction as a preliminary question. However, the Arbitral Tribunal may proceed with the arbitration and rule on such a plea in its final Award.

ARTICLE 20. CONDUCT OF ARBITRATION

1. Subject to the mandatory provisions of these Rules, the parties are free to agree on the arbitration proceedings.
2. Subject to these Rules, the Arbitral Tribunal may conduct the arbitration in whatever manner it considers appropriate, provided that the parties are treated with equality and that each party has the right to be heard and is given a fair opportunity to present its case.
3. The Arbitral Tribunal may in its discretion bifurcate proceedings and direct the parties to focus their presentation on issues the decision of which could dispose of all or part of the case.

ARTICLE 21. RULES GOVERNING THE PROCEEDINGS

The Arbitral Tribunal shall conduct the proceedings in accordance with these Rules and, where these Rules are silent, any rules which the parties or, failing them, the Arbitral Tribunal may settle on.

ARTICLE 22. EVIDENCE

1. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, the Arbitral Tribunal may at any time during the proceeding order the parties:
 - (a) to produce documents, exhibits or other evidence it deems necessary and appropriate; or
 - (b) to make any property, site, or object under their control and relating to the subject matter of the arbitration available for inspection by the Arbitral Tribunal, any other party, or any expert to the Arbitral Tribunal.

2. The Arbitral Tribunal may require a party to deliver to the Arbitral Tribunal and to the other parties a summary of the documents and other evidences which that party intends to present in support of its claim, counterclaim or defense.
3. Each party shall have the burden of proving the facts relied upon to support any claim, counterclaim or defense.
4. The power conferred upon the Arbitral Tribunal shall include the power to determine the admissibility, relevance, materiality and weight of any evidence.

ARTICLE 23. EXPERTS

1. The Arbitral Tribunal may appoint one or more experts to report to it on specific issues to be determined by the Arbitral Tribunal and communicated to the parties. A copy of the expert's terms of reference, established by the Arbitral Tribunal, shall be communicated to the parties.
2. The Arbitral Tribunal may require a party to give the expert any relevant information or to provide access to any relevant documents, goods or other property for his inspection.
3. Upon receipt of the expert's report, the Arbitral Tribunal shall send a copy of the report to all parties and shall give the parties an opportunity to comment on the report. A party may examine any document on which the expert has relied in preparing such a report.

ARTICLE 24. LANGUAGE OF THE ARBITRATION

In the absence of an agreement by the parties, the Arbitral Tribunal shall determine the language or languages of the arbitration, due regard being given to all relevant circumstances, including the language of the contract.

ARTICLE 25. APPLICABLE LAW

1. The parties shall be free to agree upon the substantive laws or rules of law to be applied by the Arbitral Tribunal to the merits of the dispute. In the absence of any such agreement, the Arbitral Tribunal shall apply the substantive laws or rules of law which it determines to be appropriate.
2. In all cases the Arbitral Tribunal shall take account of the provisions of the contract and the relevant trade usages.
3. The Arbitral Tribunal shall assume the powers of an amiable compositeur or decide ex aequo et bono only if the parties have expressly agreed to give it such powers.

ARTICLE 26. HEARINGS

1. When a hearing is to be held, the Arbitral Tribunal, giving reasonable notice, shall summon the parties to appear before it on the day and at the place fixed by it.
2. The Arbitral Tribunal shall be in full charge of the hearings, at which all the parties shall be entitled to be present. Save with the approval of the Arbitral Tribunal and the parties, persons not involved in the proceedings shall not be admitted.
3. The parties may appear in person or through duly authorized representatives. In addition, they may be assisted by advisors.
4. Hearings are private unless the parties agree otherwise or the law provides to the contrary. The Arbitral Tribunal may require any witness or witnesses to retire during the testimony of other witnesses. The Arbitral Tribunal may determine the manner in which witnesses are examined.

5. The Secretariat may, at the request of the Arbitral Tribunal or either party, make tape recordings and arrange for interpreting, making stenographic transcript and providing a hearing room and the like as necessary for conducting the arbitration proceedings, with the costs to be borne by the parties.

ARTICLE 27. CLOSURE OF THE PROCEEDINGS

1. When it is satisfied that the parties have had a reasonable opportunity to present their cases, the Arbitral Tribunal shall declare the proceedings closed. Thereafter, no further submission or argument may be made, or evidence produced, unless requested or authorized by the Arbitral Tribunal.
2. The Arbitral Tribunal in its discretion, on its own motion or upon application of a party, may reopen the hearing at any time before the Award is made.

ARTICLE 28. CONSERVATORY AND INTERIM MEASURES

1. Unless the parties have agreed otherwise, as soon as the file has been transmitted to it, the Arbitral Tribunal may at the request of a party order any interim or conservatory measure it deems appropriate. The Arbitral Tribunal may make the granting of any such measure subject to appropriate security being furnished by the requesting party. Any such measure shall take the form of an order, giving reasons, or of an Award, as the Arbitral Tribunal considers appropriate.
2. Before the file is transmitted to the Arbitral Tribunal, and in appropriate circumstances even thereafter, the parties may apply to any competent judicial authority for interim or conservatory measures. The application of a party to a judicial authority for such measures or for the implementation of any such measures ordered by an Arbitral Tribunal shall not be deemed to be an infringement or a waiver of the arbitration agreement and shall not affect the relevant powers reserved to the Arbitral Tribunal. Any such application and any measures taken by the judicial authority must be notified without delay to the Secretariat. The Secretariat shall inform the Arbitral Tribunal thereof.

ARTICLE 29. DEFAULT

1. If, within the period of time fixed by the Arbitral Tribunal, the Respondent has failed to file an Answer without showing sufficient cause for such failure, the Arbitral Tribunal shall order that the proceedings continue.
2. If any of the parties, although duly summoned, fails to appear without valid excuse, the Arbitral Tribunal shall have the power to proceed with the hearing.
3. If any of the parties, although duly invited to produce documentary evidence, fails to do so within the established period of time, without valid excuse, the Arbitral Tribunal may make the Award on the evidence before it.

CHAPTER 5. THE AWARD

ARTICLE 30. DECISIONS

Where there is more than one arbitrator and they fail to agree on any issue, any Award or decision shall be made by a majority of the arbitrators. Failing a majority decision on any issue, the Award on that issue shall be made by the chairman of the Arbitral Tribunal alone.

ARTICLE 31. FORM AND EFFECT OF THE AWARD

1. The Award shall be in writing. Unless the parties have agreed otherwise, the Arbitral Tribunal shall state the reasons upon which the Award is based.
2. The Award shall state its date and shall be signed by all the members of the Arbitral Tribunal. If a minority arbitrator refuses or fails to sign the Award, the remaining arbitrators shall specify the reason and sign thereon. The Award shall be deemed to be made at the place of the arbitration and on the date stated therein.
3. Every Award shall be binding on the parties. The parties undertake to carry out the Award without delay.

ARTICLE 32. INTERIM, INTERLOCUTORY OR PARTIAL AWARDS

1. In addition to making a final Award, the Arbitral Tribunal shall be entitled to make interim, interlocutory or partial Awards.
2. In case of partial Awards, the Arbitral Tribunal may make Awards on different issues at different times, which shall be subject to correction under the procedure specified under Article 36. Unless stated otherwise by the Arbitral Tribunal, such Awards shall be individually enforceable as soon as they are made.
