

4th Coimbra International Arbitration Meeting

The meeting is coordinated by José Miguel Júdice, the partner who heads PLMJ Arbitration, and António Pinto Leite, the partner who heads litigation and arbitration at the law firm MLGTS. The fourth meeting is taking place at the Faculty of Law of the University of Coimbra and at Quinta das Lágrimas, and it brings together 17 foreign speakers and leading figures from the world of international arbitration. These include lawyers and academics from São Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, Paris, Washington, Belo Horizonte, Lisbon, Oporto and Coimbra. Among the topics to be debated are the question of civil liability (good faith, loss of chance, "split the baby", contributory negligence, civil law and common law perspective), and the question of quantum of damages (with an innovative debate between two international arbitrators and two international expert witnesses). The meeting will also address topics such as arbitration and criminality, arbitration and corporate law, cross-examination techniques, civil liability of arbitrators and psychology in the arbitral award.
